

Beth Zobian

Beth Zobian teaches ballet and jazz at Roosevelt High School's School of the Arts. She is the owner of The Dancing School and the director of The 2nd Street Dancers.

Beth has been dancing for over 30 years and has performed in China, and Europe as well as all over the valley. She is a former member of the Fresno Jazz Company and the Fresno Ballet.

Beth holds a multiple subject teaching credential from California State University, Fresno and a Master of Arts degree from Golden Gate University, San Francisco. In addition to choreographing The 2nd Street Dancers' local and international shows, she has choreographed for many community musicals including, "Oklahoma" for Selma High School and "The King and I" for The Raisin Cain Players.