

Edward R. Silva

Edward R. Silva is a recent graduate of the University of California Davis with a degree in Art Studio and a minor in Education. Mr. Silva has taken courses from some of the most prominent and successful artist in the United States, Wayne Theibaud and Chicano Artist Malaquias Montoya are just a few. He is the eldest of four children and the first to graduate from a University of California in his family. He currently resides in the heart of the Tower District. He intends to further his education in the arts and receive a masters in fine arts.

Mr. Silva has a wide array of skills, and passions. He gained industry experience while working at Duncan Enterprises, a hobby and ceramic glaze manufacturer while having numerous exhibitions of his own work at local venues as well as at UC Davis. Mr. Silva has extensive experience in working with students, teachers, parents and administrative staff at the primary and secondary grade levels as a programs facilitator for the M.E.S.A. during his undergraduate studies at Davis. Mr. Silva still enjoys doing his own artwork, and music and looks forward to teaching and exposing students to the incredible world of art.